OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS
NUVEEN INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FUND - FACULTY
Academic Year 2017-18

The Nuveen Center for International Affairs is accepting applications for the AY 2017-2018 International Development Fund. This competition is open to all UIC faculty.

We are pleased to announce that ten $1,000.00 awards will be available for AY 2017-18. These awards are intended to encourage international program development at UIC by supporting faculty in activities that will result in an internationally enriched academic environment. Typically, proposals may involve but need not be limited to:

- the initiation, strengthening, or expansion of collaborative programs
- student and faculty exchanges, fellowships, and development programs

Your application will not be processed unless it is complete. It is your responsibility to ensure that all parts of the application are received.

The deadline for this competition is: Friday, November 3, 2017. Notification of the results will be emailed thirty (30) days following the application deadline date.

NOTE: ALL AWARDED PROPOSALS WILL BE REQUIRED TO LIST THE OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS-JNC AWARDS IN ALL MATERIALS RELATED TO THE FUNDED ACTIVITY. Copies of such materials will be submitted with the final report also requested.

For additional information, please contact the Office of International Affairs at (312) 996-5455.

Applications should be sent to:

International Development Fund
John Nuveen Center for International Affairs (m/c 590)
509 University Hall
601 South Morgan Street
Chicago, Illinois 60607-7128
To apply please submit the following materials:

- Application form (enclosed)
- Endorsement statement (enclosed): to be submitted directly by Department Head or Unit Director via email to oia@uic.edu from a designated UIC email address.
- Vita summary
- Narrative statement: This document should be a maximum of one (1) double-spaced page and should include:
  - Objectives and significance of the proposed activity.
  - Description of how the activity relates to the development or enhancement of international activity and programs, and to long-term benefits for students, staff, or faculty at the University of Illinois at Chicago.
  - Evidence of efforts to identify and build upon existing University of Illinois at Chicago linkages.
  - Description of how the funds will be used. Please notice that this award can be used to cover expenses such as RT ticket, lodging, ground transportation, or research material. Consistent with the awarded proposal, payments will apply exclusively to items and activity proposed in your application.
  - Additional funding, either confirmed or being applied for, which would support the proposed activity.

Criteria for Awards:

- Applicant must be a member of the UIC faculty for the year following the award.
- This program is intended to support the enhancement of international activities at UIC.
- Primary weight will be given to the merit of the proposal as determined by the following:
  - Relevance to development or enhancement of campus international activities or programs;
  - Direct benefits for UIC student, staff, and faculty population; and
  - Prospects for continued activity directly resulting from proposed funding.
- Applicant must not have received the IDF Award in the previous or current academic year.
- Applications for reimbursement of activities occurring by 06/30/2018 are the only ones to be considered.
- Please note that payment paperwork must be processed within one week of the end of the UIC fiscal year or the recipient will forfeit funding.
- Activities may include participating/visiting partner institutions. Travel to a sabbatical destination will not be supported.
- Please note that if the award is to support travel costs, flight boarding passes and tickets must be submitted at the time of reimbursement.
- OIA request that your reports include this award among the sponsors.

If you have any questions concerning your proposal, please contact the Office of International Affairs at 312-996-5455. Notification of the results will be emailed thirty (30) days following the application deadline date.
